

TERMS, CONDITIONS & RELEASE

TUITION

Student and student's parent or guardian ("parent") understand and agree that the student's application must be received by April 1, 2013 either through the online enrollment process or by mail.

In the event the student is admitted to the Summit, the student and parent will submit a check or authorize a credit card transaction for a non-refundable deposit of $280 or pay the $2980 tuition in full to secure the student's enrollment. All credit card transactions will appear as Brandeis University.

Tuition must be paid in full no later than June 15, 2013 or delegate's enrollment will be cancelled and any refund will be subject to the cancellation and refund policy detailed below.

Delegate and parent acknowledge and agree that participation entitles the delegate to activities scheduled by the Global Youth Summit including, but not limited to room, board, ground transportation, activities and all educational materials and events. Brandeis University will comply with all applicable ADA requirements for delegates needing reasonable accommodation.

BRANDEIS UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

Delegate and parent understand that an added benefit of successful completion of the Summit is a $3000 scholarship awarded to the delegate should he/she eventually be admitted and enrolled as a freshman undergraduate student at Brandeis. The scholarship will be applied to tuition during the delegate's first year at Brandeis. Delegate and Parent understand that participation in the Summit does not guarantee admission to Brandeis as a degree-seeking student.

ADMISSION AND WAIT LIST

Student and parent acknowledge that this is an application for admission to the Global Youth Summit and Brandeis University has full discretion on the admission of all delegates. All admission decisions will be made by April 15, 2013. The Global Youth Summit does maintain a waitlist for qualified delegates.

DELEGATE HONOR CODE

Delegate and parent understand the delegate will agree to and sign the Delegate Honor Code at the delegate's first group meeting and any violations of the Honor Code may result in dismissal from the Summit at the delegate's and parents' expense.

PUBLICITY & RESEARCH

Delegate and parent grant Brandeis University and the Global Youth Summit the authority to use still, audio, and video recordings taken of the delegate and quotes from evaluations in future publications and for educational research undertaken by the University.

PHONE USE

Delegate and parent approve the use of a cellular phone by the delegate and understand that delegates may only use their cell phones according to the rules established in the Delegate Honor Code.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION

Delegate and parent authorize Brandeis University, its agents, and assigns, to provide transportation to the delegate in connection with the delegate's participation in the program.

MEDICAL AUTHORIZATION

Separate and apart from this admission application, delegate and parent agree to complete a Medical History and Emergency Medical Authorization Form upon acceptance into the program.

COMPUTER USE

Delegate and parent acknowledge that delegates will have limited access to the internet and understand that due to the nature of the internet, responsibilities rest with the delegate. The network is a public marketplace where nothing is hidden and Brandeis University cannot control what delegates do, except through the Delegate Honor Code and trust. Violation of the Delegate Honor Code will result in termination of the right to access the internet and may result in dismissal at delegate and parent's expense. Delegate and parent hold Brandeis University harmless for any violations of internet protocol detected or otherwise incurred by the delegates.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Delegate and parent agree to indemnify, release and hold harmless Brandeis University and the Global Youth Summit and their directors, officers, employees, agents, representative and affiliates from loss, liability, damage or expense arising out of the delegate's participation. Brandeis University shall not be liable for loss, damage or expense arising from cancellation, acts of God, governmental actions or any other occurrence beyond Brandeis University's control. This agreement shall be interpreted under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND

Delegate and parent understand that cancellation and refund requests must be made in writing and sent via mail to the Admissions Office or via email to youthsummit@brandeis.edu.

Cancellation and refund requests must be received no later than May 15, 2013. The $280 deposit is non-refundable.

Cancellations made prior to May 15, 2013 will receive all tuition back less the $280 deposit.

Cancellations made after May 15, 2013 will forfeit all tuition paid.

Delegates who are dismissed from the Global Youth Summit for violations of the Delegate Honor Code or who leave the Summit early for any reason are not eligible for refund.

PROGRAM MODIFICATIONS

Brandeis University and the Global Youth Summit reserve the right to postpone, modify or cancel the Summit at any time. If the delegate elects to cancel from a postponed or modified Summit the $280 deposit is forfeited. If Brandeis University cancels the Summit all monies will be returned, but Brandeis will not be responsible for any additional costs incurred other than those covered under Tuition.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Brandeis University complies with all applicable federal and state laws and admits qualified delegates without any regard to race, color, sex, religion, nationality, disability or sexual orientation.

PRIVACY

Brandeis University respects and protects the privacy of our delegates. You may visit www.brandeis.edu/youthsummit to read our privacy policy.
