General Information:  Opened in 1971, the Lemberg Children’s Center (LCC) moved into a state-of-the-art childcare facility on June 10, 2014. The Center serves as a practicum site for Brandeis University students of education and child development. We have six classrooms, two each for infants, toddlers and preschoolers. LCC is known for having many adults in each preschool classroom creating very low ratios of adults to children. Currently in reaccreditation with NAEYC, routines include extensive programming for social emotional learning, community building, celebrating human diversity, loving literature, the arts, STEM, nature and working collaboratively with others. More than 40% of the children speak a language other than English at home. Open all year, 8-6 Monday – Friday.

We are also the Northeast Regional Training Center for the American Psychological Association’s ACT Raising Safe Kids Program. This is a parent education and violence prevention program.
