President's Message

I am looking forward to an interesting spring/summer for our Brandeis Chapter. Provocative new Study Groups have been scheduled, in addition to lively Open Meetings and our current Study Groups. Our hope is that these programs will stimulate and enrich our lives. I am optimistic about your continued participation.

Our fundraising activities will continue, but on a limited basis this spring. They support the research into neurological diseases done at Brandeis University.

I encourage our members to bring friends to Open Meetings and to our Study Groups. We always welcome new members.

---Doris Brill

STUDY GROUPS

Headlines of the Month—Today

This new study group is loosely suggested by the TV program “Last Week Tonight” with John Oliver.

Our version:

Headlines of the Month—Today with Maxine Feingold and Lucille Newman.

The format:

In the month preceding the meeting, as you are reading the newspaper or magazine, cut out one headline (along with the article) that you think would be worth discussing. These will be given to Maxine and Luceille, the facilitators/moderators, who will then lead the discussion.

There are headlines in the news everyday and this format should encompass several topics of interest to all.

This group will meet on the third Friday of the month at Great Neck House at 10:30am...in the morning before the Drama Study Group meets in the afternoon.

Drama Discussion

Each month this group selects a play to be analyzed at our next session. Often we will concentrate on a particular playwright.

The facilitator of the group will be Elaine Kaner (516) 374-3633. Please join us for a very stimulating afternoon.

Since Headlines of the Month—Today meets at 10:30am and the Drama Study Group at 1:30pm, there is plenty of time for a lunch break. (Deli on the Green is a favorite spot.) So make these special Fridays a Brandeis Day!

Informational Law

This group meets the last Monday of every month at The Great Neck Social Center from 10:30am to 12 Noon. An informal layman exchange of opinions and information on topics related directly or indirectly to a legal issue will be discussed. It often leads to thought-provoking conversations.

The facilitator of this group is Ada Frischer.

Cinema Club

This popular group led by Iris Finkelstein (516-487-6182) meets on the 3rd or 4th Monday of the month at the Great Neck Social Center from 1:30-3pm.

The members choose a film (to be seen on their own) for discussion and critique at the next meeting. Come join the lively discussion!

Literature Study Group

Our goal is “to read new authors as well as literary giants of the past; to raise our horizons while we enjoy losing ourselves in the lives and times of fascinating characters in fiction and non-fiction alike ... one of the most pleasurable activities known to human beings.” This study group meets at the Shelter Rock Library from 1 to 3pm one Thursday each month. The presenters often have background information about the author and the discussions are open to interesting interpretations and comments from the members attending.

Literature usually meets on Thursdays and members will be notified of the specific dates and times by email.

The group is chaired by Jessie Hirschberger (347-235-4220).

The schedule is as follows:

February 2018

Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult

March 2018

Valley of Amazement by Amy Tan

April 2018

Faithful by Alice Hoffman

May 2018

The Girl Who Wrote in Silk by Kelli Estes

June 2018

The Forgotten Garden by Kate Morton

July 2018

Queen Victoria by Julia Baird

August 2018

The Rent Collector by Cameron Wright

Opera

The Opera Study Group is for opera learners and opera lovers. We meet the first Monday of every month from 10:15 to 12 noon at the Great Neck Senior Center.

It doesn't matter if you have a great knowledge of opera, or none at all. Come and hear the stories of the opera and listen to really great music. The group is led by Ada Frischer (516-922-5909), Madelon Avallone (515-623-3692) and Janet Goodman (718-224-6248).

A Look at the U.S. Supreme Court

This new Study Group will meet the first Monday of every month at the Great Neck Social Center from 1-3pm starting in May. Joan Easton will be the study group leader.

Louis Brandeis was the first of eight Jewish Supreme Court Justices who we will discuss in this study group. We will look at the issues they dealt with and the society and culture of the United States at the time they served. We will discuss various cases, some of which you may know like Roe v. Wade, the abortion case or Obergefell v. Hodges, the same sex-marriage decision.

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr. once said, "We are very quiet there, but it's the quiet of a storm center."

Since the Opera Study Group meets from 10:15-12pm and A Look at The Supreme Court meets at 1:00pm, there is plenty of time for a lunch break. Bring your own lunch or order lunch at the Senior Center. Make these special Mondays a Brandeis Day!

Ladies Who Lunch

The Ladies Who Lunch program has been a huge success. We try to meet every month in different restaurants in the area. Come for a delicious meal and good company. Socializing and chatting with other interesting women is the purpose. Each attendee pays for her own lunch. Check your email for dates, times and places.

REMINDER: YOUR $35 ACTIVITY FEE ENTITLES YOU TO ANY AND ALL STUDY GROUPS.

IF YOU DO NOT USE A COMPUTER, CHECK WITH THE STUDY GROUP LEADER TO FIND OUT IF A STUDY GROUP, OR MEETING, HAS BEEN CANCELLED.
