

Guilherme Klausner

Guilherme Alfradique Klausner is a Ph. student in Theory and Philosophy of Law at the Law School of the State University of Rio de Janeiro, with a Master's degree from the same institution, having written a dissertation about the relations between Heavy Metal, heroic-aristocratic images, and the reactionary political imagination. He has published on the different uses of the image of the barbarian in Brazilian and European Heavy Metal, an adaptation of the conclusions of his research to the study of three Brazilian bands, and has written other articles in Portuguese about the topic (CV available here). He is the only member of Trieb and the lead singer of Ankhalimah.