Those who nominated him this year say:

Daniel Breen is a fantastic professor. He is eloquent, charismatic and passionate about what he teaches. Every lecture was phenomenal.

His passion for legal studies and social justice is contagious.

Professor Breen is full of positive energy, as he seeks not only to teach us but to inspire us.

He really seems to care about all of his students and to want us to succeed.

Every lecture with him is an adventure, and every class lifts my spirits, teaches me something interesting, and helps me think critically about the subject matter.
