Professor Brainerd is a fantastic professor who sparks interest in the course material and increases students’ ability to think critically about complex issues.

She truly cared about all her students and really wanted every single person to get the most out of this class. While the class was a challenge, I found it so rewarding.

Professor Brainerd is an inspiration to me. She exemplifies everything I look for in a teacher.