

“OTHER PEOPLE’S COLLEGES”

A HISTORY OF MARGINALIZATION IN AMERICAN HIGHER EDUCATION

ETHAN RIS

Join author Ethan Ris as he talks about his book “Other People’s Colleges: The Origins of American Higher Education Reform.”

It is an illuminating history of the reform agenda in higher education.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023

10:30 a.m. to 12 noon

LOCATION: Mandel Center for the Humanities Forum

Sponsored by Brandeis Education Program
Sillerman Center for the Advancement of Philanthropy
Marya Levenson ‘64 Fund for Education

Use this QR code to RSVP
if you plan to attend.

Dr. Ethan Ris is an assistant professor of educational leadership at the University of Nevada, Reno, where he directs the university’s Higher Education Administration graduate programs. His research examines higher education policy, organization, and governance, with a focus on the interactions between philanthropic foundations, government, and colleges and universities in the 20th century United States. Ethan holds a Ph.D. and an M.A. from Stanford University and a B.A. from Brown University.

Brandeis