Through Immigrant Voices: School in the USA
Extend the Impact of 'DEIS Impact! Here are some ideas of what you can do:

1. Learn some basic words or phrases in a new language; Spanish is a great one to start with! Waltham Family School staff suggests the following: Buenos días - Good morning ¿Cómo te llamas? - What is your name? ¿Cómo estás? - How are you? ¡Hasta luego! - See you later!

2. Join Professor Marci McPhee's course EL 16a: The Immigrant Experience in Waltham: A Service-based Practicum. The course offers hands-on experience with working in a community to tackle social justice issues.

3. To all the book lovers, settle in with Pam Munoz Ryan's novel Esperanza Rising. It's an easy read and an uplifting, beautiful tale of a young girl's experience as an immigrant from Mexico during the Great Depression.

4. Take a study break and listen to one student's perspective on the racial insensitivities often experienced by immigrants: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kZt77YY5X7Y

5. Become a Waltham Family School volunteer! Contact the office at 781-314-5696, talk to Waltham Family School volunteers, or email current WFS intern Mrudula Gadgil at mgadgil@brandeis.edu to learn more about how you can get involved.

6. Participate in volunteer opportunities offered at Brandeis that work with immigrant families: TIPS, WATCH Housing Clinic, Prospect Hill community Center, and the English Language Learning Initiative.

7. Register for Professor Rachel Theodorou's course “The Teaching of English Language Learners: Pre-K to 12” or the experiential learning practicum

8. Take a look at the photo installation “The Immigrant Experience at Brandeis” this Thursday in the SCC
