

BRANDEIS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

WORLD
READY

Ranked #1 in the U.S. for two straight years for pre-experience
finance master's programs

— Financial Times

WORLD READY

"The business school not only helps broaden our knowledge of finance and economics on the global stage, but teaches different approaches to being a respectful member of the world community."

— Lily Chebotarova, MA '13, Odessa, Ukraine

Today's global economy calls for business professionals who are World Ready. And there is no better place to become World Ready than Brandeis International Business School.

Our global reach attracts students from around the world who seek to make an impact across continents and cultures. Students benefit from the intellectual depth that Brandeis is known for, reaching new levels of understanding in fields that are vital for cross-border success. And they thrive in an atmosphere of human touch, making connections with faculty and peers, celebrating cultural diversity, and building a worldwide professional network.

World Ready. It's our promise to students, and our promise to the world.

WORLD READY
MEANS
GLOBAL FLUENCY.

Brandeis IBS ranks among the top U.S. business
schools for women
— The Princeton Review

At Brandeis IBS, fluency means more than language. It means having a firm grasp of cultural nuance and subtlety; recognizing the interplay of economic, political and social forces; understanding the dynamics of cross-border commerce; and finding opportunity in volatility across global markets. It means knowing how the world works and being able to thrive in it.

"To succeed in business, you need to know that it's not just about business."

— Priya Sridhar, MBA '12, United States

WORLD READY.
MEANS
ANALYTIC RIGOR.

Brandeis IBS is home to the region's largest Bloomberg Lab, which puts a wealth of real-time financial data at students' fingertips.

Students at Brandeis IBS gain exceptional quantitative skills, extensive experience with global financial modeling and a well-packed analytic toolkit. They graduate with the ability to turn data into insights and interpret numbers in meaningful ways.

"A rigorous quantitative curriculum focused on international business."

Financial Times

"I don't know what the student to faculty ratio is, but it feels like 1:1. And that's what's important."

— Thomas Weaver, MA '12, United States

WORLD READY
MEANS
WORLD EXPERTS.

- The school's faculty are thought leaders in their disciplines, creating new financial models for understanding complex markets, conducting award-winning research on macroeconomic policy, and spearheading fields of academic scholarship like cross-cultural fluency and microfinance.
- Students choose from five degree programs led by a faculty of leading researchers and practitioners whose expertise ranges across topics from entrepreneurship and market microstructure to chaos theory and Latin American trade.
- A challenging curriculum grounded in the study of international finance, business and economic policy forms the foundation for a transformational learning experience that blends academic theory with real-world practice.
- Brandeis IBS' centers, initiatives and institutes bring students together with world leaders to engage topics of global importance such as business leadership, entrepreneurship, cross-border trade, and women in business.

- Our multi-cultural campus is connected to the world-class city of Boston, a thriving international hub for innovation in business, finance, technology and education.
- The high quality at Brandeis IBS reflects the commitment to academic excellence of its parent: Brandeis University, one of the world's leading research universities, known for its social consciousness as well as its superior teaching and research.

WORLD READY
MEANS WORLD CLASS.

Brandeis IBS is less than 30 minutes away from Boston and Cambridge, giving students the opportunity to make vital connections with business leaders and companies in the area.

“The international focus of the program made me feel confident to embark on a global career. Along with analytic skills, I learned cultural sensitivity and the soft skills needed to be successful in any setting.”

— Shayan Nuradeen, MBA '10, Iraq
Market Access & Public Relations Project Manager, Novo Nordisk A/S

WORLD READY
MEANS
READY TO ADD VALUE.

"Brandeis IBS has excellent links with business."

The Economist

A Brandeis IBS education prepares business professionals to thrive across cultures and around the world. Graduates hit the ground running in their careers, adding immediate value and achieving measurable results for the organizations they work for, lead and create.

Students graduate equipped with an education that the global marketplace demands:

- A powerful blend of theory and practice
- Skills to be successful in the global economy
- A worldwide alumni network

"Brandeis IBS graduates come to the table with such a solid skill set. They jump in and contribute from day one."

Michelle Desaulniers, Global Talent Acquisition Manager for IHS Global Insight

Brandeis IBS alumni serve and lead in business, governmental and non-profit organizations worldwide.

BANKING & FINANCE

Bank of America, Fidelity Investments, JP Morgan Chase, State Street Corporation

CONSULTING & PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

Bain & Company, IHS Global Insight, McKinsey and Company, PricewaterhouseCoopers

CORPORATE & TECHNOLOGY

Apple, EMC, Google, IBM, Lufthansa

GOVERNMENT & NON-PROFIT

African Development Bank, U.S. Federal Reserve, IMF, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development

WORLD READY
MEANS
OUR WORLD.

Ranked among the top
sixteen U.S. business schools
for eco-entrepreneurship
— Entrepreneur magazine

Preparing students to succeed in the world is one goal of a Brandeis IBS education. Preparing graduates who will shape the world is another. With a Brandeis IBS degree comes the passion, insight, integrity and creative spark that professionals need to define the way forward in global business.

"I see Brandeis IBS as a place of transformation for myself and for the very nature of business; I believe that the global business community is the strongest agent of social justice that we have."

— Debra Butler, MBA '13, United States

BRANDEIS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL IN BRIEF

CHARACTER

Delivering an education grounded in rigorous economic and financial theory, Brandeis IBS prepares students from around the world to become principled business professionals in global companies and public institutions. The school is part of Brandeis University, one of the world's leading research universities.

STUDENTS

The 500 students at Brandeis IBS are multitalented and multinational, coming from over 70 countries. Our close-knit, human-scale campus community helps students forge connections and build international networks.

FACULTY

A faculty of renowned scholars, inspiring teachers and leading practitioners offers a broad spectrum of expertise in business, finance and economics.

LOCATION

Brandeis IBS is in Waltham, Massachusetts, part of Greater Boston, a thriving international hub for business, technology, culture and higher education.

CORPORATE CONNECTIONS

Brandeis IBS forges tight connections with major world businesses, bringing in visionary business leaders, CEOs, entrepreneurs and others to share their expertise. Our Career Center maintains a database of 2,000 employers around the globe.

ALUMNI

Brandeis IBS has more than 2,200 engaged alumni from over 100 countries. The school's vibrant global network allows for intimate personal connections and diverse professional opportunities locally and abroad.

ACCREDITATION

Brandeis IBS is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International), the leading accrediting organization for business schools worldwide.

ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

MA in International Economics and Finance (the Lemberg Program) — A forward-thinking applied degree focused on the forces that influence capital markets and the global economy.

MBA — A distinctive program that develops the diverse knowledge and skills that business professionals need to compete and thrive in the international arena.

MS in Finance — A focus on the analytic foundations and practice of finance, with emphasis on global financial markets and financial theory, analysis and strategy. (Offered full-time or part-time.)

PhD in International Economics and Finance — A rigorous four- to six-year program for those seeking careers in high-level research, consulting, teaching and policy-making.

BA/MA — A 5-year program that allows qualified Brandeis University undergraduates to complete the MA in International Economics and Finance with one year of post-baccalaureate study.

BA and Minor in Business — A cross-disciplinary program led by Brandeis IBS faculty that integrates study of the liberal arts with an undergraduate degree or minor in business.

Specializations in asset management, corporate finance, marketing, real estate, and risk management.

“Brandeis IBS offers the intellectual foundation, practical skills and diversity of experience students need to succeed in today’s global marketplace.”

*— Bruce R. Magid, PhD, Dean
Martin and Ahuva Gross Chair in Financial Markets and Institutions*

cut

cut

Brandeis University
INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS SCHOOL

CONTACT US

BRANDEIS
INTERNATIONAL
BUSINESS SCHOOL

415 South Street
Waltham, MA 02454 9110
800 878 8866 (toll free, U.S.)
781-736 2252 (U.S.)
brandeis.edu/global

