

MASTER OF ARTS IN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS AND FINANCE (MA)

At Brandeis International Business School, we believe in the power of business for global good.

The MA program enables students to delve into economic theory and finance, while mastering data analysis skills that are critical in today's global economy. From careers in consulting, data analytics, economic analysis, finance, marketing and real estate, students move beyond models to engage in hands-on learning and prepare to tackle economic, business and financial challenges with global perspective.
