

GRADUATE DEGREE OPTIONS FOR BRANDEIS UNDERGRADUATES

The School of Business and Economics gives you a direct path to earning a master's degree, including options to take graduate courses as an undergrad and accelerate your studies. With support from expert faculty, dedicated Career Coaches and a strong professional network, you'll gain the knowledge, skills and global perspective needed to launch a successful career. Graduates of the business school earn an average U.S. salary and bonus of $94,514.

 brandeis.edu/global/undergraduates

 globaladmissions@brandeis.edu

 781.736.7600

PROGRAM OPTIONS

MA IN INTERNATIONAL ECONOMICS & FINANCE

Analytical skills and experience in business, economics and finance.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN FINANCE

Financial theory, analysis and strategy.

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ANALYTICS

Intersection of business and data skills.

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Business leadership with a global focus.

BRANDEIS UNDERGRADUATE BENEFITS

SCHOLARSHIPS

All students will automatically be considered for merit-based scholarships, including some full-tuition awards.

GUARANTEED ADMISSION

Admission is guaranteed for our pre-experience programs if you have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. For GPAs under 3.0, we may ask for some additional materials, but we'll work with you to ensure your application is fully considered.

ACCELERATED PROGRAMS

By applying early, you can begin taking graduate courses as an undergraduate, giving you a head start on your master's degree. You may also qualify for an accelerated program based on your transfer credit eligibility, allowing you to complete your degree in as little as one year. We will confirm your eligibility upon admission.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

Juniors and seniors are eligible to apply.

FAST APPLICATION

The application is free and takes less than three minutes if you have your Student ID, resume and transcript ready. We'll confirm your admission after a brief review period.

brandeis.edu/global/application