

Dear Colleagues,

Mary-Ann Winklemas, the Executive Director of the Center for Teaching and Learning at Brandeis kindly put together the following student integrity contract for us. It is based on pages 16-17 (Section 4) of the Rights and Responsibilities document, which provides the official language about academic integrity. The Academic Integrity webpage provides language more suitable for a short statement that students might sign and submit with their work.

Based on these two official sources (above), here's what Mary-Ann suggests that students sign and submit with their work:

I have asked her to share it more broadly via the Teaching Continuity webpage as well.

Best,

Linda

I affirm the following: (Please check all boxes that apply.*)

- ☐ This work I am submitting is the product of my own thought or study, with proper attribution and citation.
- ☐ I have not consulted any people or sources of information that are not allowed as a part of this work sample or exam.
- ☐ I have collaborated with others on this work only as instructed by the teacher of this course.
- ☐ I have not sold, purchased, shared, borrowed or used prior work to satisfy this assignment.
- ☐ I am submitting collaborative, shared work by myself and partners as allowed by the teacher of this course.
