My signature below certifies that I am aware this is only an application for a loan. I must sign and complete a Master Promissory note, and complete entrance counseling, at https://studentaid.gov/ if I am required to do so. I understand that it is my responsibility to follow up on the status of my loan application. I will promptly provide notification to the Office of Student Financial Services of all financial aid I receive from any source, any change in the number of credits enrolled in any term, and any change in my degree status-any of which may result in an adjustment or cancellation of my financial aid package. All charges on my student account not covered by financial aid are my responsibility.
