Brandeis Graduate Professional Studies
Military Discount

Graduate Professional Studies is proud to offer military veterans, active-duty personnel and their spouses a 15 percent tuition discount on all of our master’s degrees. The discount may be used in conjunction with other benefits earned through the Department of Veteran Affairs, such as the Post 9/11 GI Bill ® and the Yellow Ribbon Program.

In order to receive the 15 percent tuition discount, we ask that you send the following documentation to your student advisor prior to registering for a course:

- Students who are able to obtain a certificate of eligibility, should email the certificate to their student advisor.

If you are unable to obtain a certificate of eligibility, please send the following documentation to your student advisor:

- Active-Duty Personnel: Proof of service letter or verification letter from a commanding officer or a confirmation email to gps@brandeis.edu from the Department of Defense email address

- Veterans: DD Form 214 (Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty)

- Spouses: Spouse’s DD Form 214 OR spouse’s proof of service letter or verification letter OR verification letter from the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)

Please contact GPS with any questions regarding the above requirements.
