

NAME
CITY, STATE | Phone| Email
LinkedIn URL

Professional Highlights

- Sociology and Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Master’s graduate with seven years of anti-human trafficking research and policy experience with United States and International legislation.
- Creative and passionate scholar and teacher dedicated to fostering a student-centered classroom environment ranging from private to community college based on mutual respect and collaboration.
- Advanced training, education, and research on sociology and its application to international politics, race and ethnicity, gender, and intersectionality.

Anti-Human Trafficking Experience

XXXX

City, State

Board Member

2020-Present

- Collaborate with board members to plan and coordinate community and fundraising events
- Review and oversee major contracts, grants, and budgets; Discuss new community issues and statistics on intake numbers for the shelter and child in-take services
- Maintain and help continue the mission of providing victim assistance in rural Southeast Kansas for those who experienced sexual assault or abuse and family violence

Brandeis University Research

Waltham, MA

Master’s Research Project

2018-2020

- Student led research investigating international influence on the United States to pass anti-human trafficking such as the White Slave Traffic Act of 1910 and the Trafficking Victims Protection Act to analyze what populations are most assisted
- Designed and conducted qualitative research investigating anti-human trafficking legislation, policies, and activists conversations from 1880’s to 2020
- Reviewed, Summarized, and analyzed historical, legislations, policies, United States budgets, and activists writing documents to evaluate the effectiveness of helping stop the sexual exploitation of women and girls

University of Kansas Research

Lawrence, KS

Departmental Honors in Sociology and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

2016-

2018

- Student led research in Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies and Sociology on anti-human trafficking legislation and policies from the United States, United Nations, and India effects on vulnerable and exploited populations of Devadasis women in Southern India
- Interpreted and analyzed quantitative and qualitative data on anti-human trafficking academic conversations, international reports, and personal testimony of being exploited

Selected Higher Education Experience

Neosho County Community College

Chanute, KS

Department Head, Assistant Professor, Sociology Department

2020-Present

- A contract position responsible for leading adjunct Sociology faculty members at 2-3 different campuses in the review process for accreditation
- Collaboration with faculty and staff on creating an equitable environment for Neosho County Community College members through the Diversity and Inclusion committee

- Maintain and review budgets for the Sociology Department and club
- Create new course design of online curriculum for 4-6 classes each semester; Design and implement different modalities of learning in the classroom to promote learning on all levels
- Facilitate a classroom environment of inclusion and mutual respect of diverse ideas to help students navigate difficult topics

Brandeis University

Waltham, MA

Teaching Fellow, Sociology & Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Department

2019

- Facilitated class discussion sections between 10 to 40 students and encouraged students to participate while connecting individual stories to social structure and intersectionality
- Coordinated with professors and other TAs surrounding grading and discussing the course to promote equitable learning experience for all students; Worked with a diverse population of students, including many international students and ESL students, and developed strategies for responding effectively to a wide range of writing abilities

Graduate Assistant, Registrar

2019-2020

- Provided comprehensive and rigorous attention to technical input of data and checking confidential academic materials

Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies (WGS) Graduate Representative

- Serviced as a knowledgeable resource for 7-14 WGS Master students; Hosted gatherings to create community

Sociology Graduate Volunteer

2019-2020

- Serviced as a point of contact for 4-10 perspective PhD candidates to discuss and answer any questions or concerns about the Sociology department; helped in providing tours of Brandeis campus

Customer Service Experience

University of Kansas Union Bookstore

Lawrence, KS

Lead Sales Associate

2017-2018

- Part of the Learning and Development, Learning Outcomes, & Culture and Communication Committees; promoted a safe workplace and identified barriers for employees and worked with different managers to find solutions; helped create and promote interconnection and inclusion between the Union Bookstore and the Hawk Shops employees
- Created and developed a working relationship with dining services, delivery workers, and different departments in the Bookstore to service the 25,000 student body; Managed purchasing of supplies and food for store

Education

Brandeis University

Waltham, MA

Joint Master of Arts, Sociology and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

May XXXX

University Name

City, State

Bachelor of Arts, Sociology and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies with a Minor in Political Science

- Graduated May 2018 with a 3.76 GPA
- Certificates in Global Awareness, Service Learning, & Research Experience