

1,600+

undergrads are either majoring or interested in government, law, politics, education, or non-profit career opportunities of these students are interested in careers at a non-profit post-graduation

10+ Related Majors

with 600+ students pursuing degrees in politics, history, international/global studies, economics, health policy, education, American studies, psychology, or sociology

Over 35% of Brandeis graduates enter fields of service including government, non-profit, and public health

34

student-run activism and service groups including:

Waltham Group

Global Brigades

Brandeis Journal of Politics

Brandeis Pre-Law Society

Disabled Students' Network

Students for Environmental Action

“Call to Serve” School

as recognized by the Partnership for Public Service

BRANDEIS GRADUATES GO ON TO...

