

SparkTank

is an annual venture pitch event where students create startups and social impact projects that have a strong chance of success

DeisHacks

is a hackathon that partners with local non-profits to build real-world solutions that then become implemented

The MakerLab

advances learning, invention, and social justice through annual hackathons, 3D print contests, and other innovations

200+ students are currently undertaking a BA/MA in computer science or BS/MA in computational linguistics undergrads are either majoring or interested in technology or innovation-related career opportunities of computer science graduates are hired within six months of graduation technology or innovation-related clubs/groups available for students to join including:

750+

6

- Brandeis Entrepreneurship & Tech Association
- Brandeis Encourages Women in Science & Engineering
- Deis Robotics
- Deis3D
- TAMID Tech Consulting
- Quant Club

BRANDEIS GRADUATES GO ON TO...

