Application Instructions-Dependent Child Tuition at Other Institutions Faculty/SMG

The tuition remission policy can be found on the Brandeis University Human Resources webpage

This benefit may be revised or amended by the University at any time without notice.

---

Parent instructions:

1. Complete and sign the Tuition Remission Application for Dependent Children Attending Other Institutions.
  - a. All employees are required to provide proof of dependency by submitting a photocopy of the top portion (please do not send financial portion) of your latest IRS Tax Return listing the child as a dependent before the tuition remission benefit will be approved. Returns should be faxed to 781-736-4466 or submitted to the Benefits section of Human Resources, MS 118. (Do not email for your security)
2. Forward or have your child deliver the Verification of Tuition and Student Status form and instructions to the appropriate department for completion at your child's college or university.
  - a. Please direct the college or university to return the completed form to Brandeis University, Benefits section, MS 118, 415 South St. Waltham MA 02453 or if your child returns the completed form to you; you may submit it along with your application.
3. The Application and IRS forms must be completed and forwarded to the Benefits section a minimum of two months prior to the semester for which the tuition remission is desired. The Tuition Verification and Student Status form must be submitted at least one month prior to 1st payment due date.
4. Once all documents have been received Benefits will determine eligibility, calculate the tuition grant payable, and request that the payment be processed. The grant will be paid in US dollars only. Accounts Payable will process the payment request. Confirmation of payment will be sent to the e-mail address provided on your application.
  - a. Payments for the fall semester are paid after the start of our fiscal year, July 1.
  - b. Payments for spring semester due within the first 10 days of the calendar year, the payment will be paid in the previous year.
5. You only need to contact the Benefits section if you are having the school send the Verification form to us and you do not receive a confirmation of payment email within 2 weeks of payment due date. Please contact the child's school to verify the date the application was mailed to the Brandeis Benefits section.

NO EARLIER VERSIONS OF THE APPLICATION WILL BE ACCEPTED

To be completed by Employee/Parent

Benefit Overview & Eligibility

Tuition remission benefits are provided for dependent children of eligible employees. The benefit provides assistance for eight (8) academic semesters (they need not be consecutive) in an undergraduate program only. It does not apply to graduate study. If you were hired and/or eligible for this benefit after January 1, 1985*, a tuition remission benefit of $3,500 per academic year or 75% of the chosen college's tuition cost, whichever is less, is applicable. This program may be revised or amended by the University at any time without notice.

Eligibility

- One of the parents is:
  - A full-time professor, associate professor, assistant professor, research professor, associate research professor, assistant research professor, professor of the practice, distinguished scientist, associate professor of the practice, senior scientist or senior fellow at Brandeis University;
  - "A full-time instructor, senior lecturer, lecturer, and all faculty who hold 'in-residence' status, except those who have an affiliation only with a Center or Institute, who has completed three years of full-time service";
  - A full-time member of the senior management staff.
- The student is a natural born, adopted, foster child or stepchild. A foster child must have resided in the employee's home for five years prior to enrollment and the employee must have supported the foster child. Proof of dependency under IRS regulations is required.
- The student meets all requirements and is accepted by the Admissions Committee as a full-time matriculated student in the undergraduate program.

*If you were hired and eligible for this benefit prior to December 31, 1984, please contact Human Resources 781-736-4451 for additional information.

All employees are required to provide proof of dependency by submitting a photocopy of the top portion (please do not send financial portion) of your latest IRS tax return listing the child as a dependent
