Great leaders hire outstanding people, train them well, inspire them, and then get out of their way.

Frank Sonnenberg

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.

John Quincy Adams

A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.
—John Maxwell

Champions keep playing until they get it right. – Billie Jean King, Former World No. 1 Professional Tennis Player

The courage of leadership is giving others the chance to succeed even though you bear the responsibility for getting things done.

~Simon Sinek
Manager Survey on Mid-year Review: We Heard You

Annual Performance Review KEY DATES

Timing/Key Dates:

- March 22: Workday opens for staff annual review self-evaluations.
- May 19: All annual reviews must be finalized in Workday; system will close for input.
- During the March 22 – May 19 period, each step below must be completed:
  1. Eligible staff complete their self-evaluation.
  2. Managers complete their assessment and rating.
  3. Manager and eligible staff discuss the annual review.
- May 10: Merit process begins (more information to be provided).

IMPORTANT: In order to provide adequate processing time for the full integrated cycle (annual review, merit review/input and payroll processing for July), the dates above cannot be adjusted or extended.
Important dates: Workday opens for staff self-assessments on March 22 and the deadline is May 19 for managers to complete the process.

Consists of two main components:

1. Formal process to evaluate staff based on:
   - ✔ Goals and objectives from past several months, and
   - ✔ Competencies, and
   - ✔ Overall performance

2. Establishment of:
   - ✔ Goals
   - ✔ Development areas
   - ✔ For future review period (July – June)
Annual Review Process in Four Steps:

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 3:</td>
<td>Finalize review (following conversation between manager and staff)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Step 4:</td>
<td>Attestation by staff member and manager</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Will be connected to the merit process to determine increases (where appropriate).
- Reviews will be saved in Workday and can be accessed in the future if needed. No more paper!
Staff Annual Review

- Utilize ongoing check-ins and mid-year review.
- Determine staff performance with ratings:
  - Exceeds Expectations
  - Successful
  - Developing
  - Improvement Needed
- Professional knowledge and accountability.
- Collaboration and communication.
- Learning and self-development.
- Diversity and Inclusion.

- Identify goals for future review period.
- Build as SMART goals if possible (see appendix).
- Identify development opportunities

In collaboration with Manager Focus Group, a new performance rating model has been developed:

- Managers should utilize the key components of TAP and actual performance when determining the appropriate employee rating.
- An appropriate distribution of staff into the corresponding rating categories is required. That is, do not lump all employees into the ‘successful’ category in an across the board method.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Rating</th>
<th>Description</th>

</table>
| Exceeds Expectations | The employee consistently exceeds expectations and demonstrates exceptional performance and innovation in what is produced, how it is produced, and mastery of the competencies.
∙ They are competent, innovative, collaborative, productive and go above and beyond the scope of the job.
∙ They embrace change and seek continuous improvement opportunities, recommending solutions.
∙ The employee is often sought out by others for counsel and assistance and is widely recognized as a role model who willingly shares knowledge and takes initiative to go above and beyond expectations.
∙ They lead change efforts, identify new opportunities and champion continuous improvement with significant positive impact. They require minimal direction.
∙ This rating should be used sparingly and reserved for exceptional contributors throughout the review period. |
| Successful          | The employee consistently achieves expectations.
∙ The employee demonstrates capable, effective, and satisfactory performance on both what is produced, how it is produced, and mastery of many competencies.
∙ Their ongoing performance meets and occasionally exceeds performance standards for the position throughout the review period.
∙ The individual is dependable, collaborative and productive. They are generally receptive to change and seek continuous improvement opportunities.
∙ They consistently take initiative and require moderate to minimal direction. |
| Developing          | The employee achieves expectations in some areas and falls below in others.
∙ Actions and outcomes demonstrate inconsistent capability and/or effort or require significant guidance and support.
∙ This category may include new employees who may be evaluated against “learning the job” versus expectations for longer tenured fully proficient team members.
∙ This rating may reflect developing skills and experience, and indicate that more training, coaching and/or support is needed to enable success. |
| Improvement Needed  | The employee consistently performs below expectations or standards for the position.
∙ What is produced, how it is produced, and mastery of competencies are not acceptable.
∙ The employee inconsistently takes initiative to complete work and requires significant to moderate direction.
∙ The employee’s ongoing performance must improve within a defined time frame to remain in the position.
∙ A Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) should be initiated, collaborating with Human Resources. |
Staff Rated as Exceeds Expectations:

- Recognized as a role model; and
- Willingly shares knowledge; and
- Takes initiative to go above and beyond expectations; and
- Lead change efforts, identify new opportunities and champion continuous improvement with significant positive impact.

Important: The use of an ‘Exceeds Expectations’ rating should be used sparingly and reserved for truly outstanding contributors who exhibit each of the behaviors above consistently throughout the review period.
Staff Rated as Successful:

✔ Consistently demonstrates capable, effective, and satisfactory performance on both what it is produced, how it is produced, and mastery of many competencies.

✔ Their ongoing performance meets and occasionally exceeds performance standards for the position throughout the review period.

✔ The individual is dependable, collaborative and productive. They are generally receptive to change and seek continuous improvement opportunities.

✔ They consistently take initiative and generally require minimal direction.
Staff Rated as Developing:

- ✔ The employee achieves expectations in some areas and falls below in others.

- ✔ Actions and outcomes demonstrate inconsistent capability and/or effort or require significant guidance and support.

- ✔ This category may include new employees who may be evaluated against “learning the job” versus expectations for someone who has been at Brandeis longer.

- ✔ This rating may reflect developing skills and experience, and indicate that more training, coaching and/or support is needed to enable success.
Performance Assessment - Ratings

Staff Rated as Improvement Needed:

✔ Consistently performs below expectations or standards for the position. What is produced, how it is produced, and mastery of competencies are not acceptable.

✔ Inconsistently takes initiative to complete work and requires significant to moderate direction.

✔ Ongoing performance must improve within a defined time frame to remain in the position.

✔ Note: Contact your HR Business Partner and a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) should be initiated.

Human Resources Office
Staff Rated as Improvement Needed:

- Please note: a PIP is necessary if there is an overall rating of Improvement Needed. Because the competencies are half of the weighting and the performance section is the other half, in total, an Improvement Needed rating is needed to initiate a PIP.

- May 10-24: 1\textsuperscript{st} level Managers or salary planners enter increases in Workday.
- May 24-June 5: HR prepares analytics; Divisional managers approve increases.
- June 6-16: HR prepares analytics: Executive VPs approve increases.
- June 19: Approval memo sent to Managers to communicate increases.
- June 21: Approval notification memo sent to employees to print increases.
- July 7 (hourly), July 14 (exempt): Increases reflected in pay.

Training on the merit process to follow and includes guides and computer based training for managers and salary planners.
Determining Annual Merit Increases - PREVIEW

- Differentiate pay based on performance even within same rating.
  - Audited by HR.
  - Consider internal equity.
  - Allocate increases within budget.

- Consider internal equity.
  - Are employees doing jobs requiring similar skill, level, responsibility paid comparably considering their performance, qualifications, total related experience and service?
  - Is there pay compression with newer employees or supervisors?

- Allocate increases within budget
  - Approvals roll up to next level management.
  - Discuss out of budget proposals with next level management. Budget trade-offs may be made at higher levels.

Manager Training Evaluation Survey:
Questions?
Why is Professional Development Important

- Sharpen skills
- Develop new skills
- Increased efficiency and effectiveness
- Show interest in their growth
- Brandeis offerings
Ideas for Your Staff and Their Professional Development

✔ Develop a new skill set
  ▪ Approach Manager for suggestions
  ▪ Common skills needed in your field
  ▪ Take advantage of existing resources:
    • LinkedIn Learning videos and try the skills testing feature
    • Training opportunities offered by HR and the EAP
    • Attend free lectures offered by Brandeis or elsewhere
  ▪ Work with your manager and suggest new approaches to increase efficiency while maintaining effectiveness

✔ Level-up your credentials
  ▪ Earn a certification
  ▪ Take a course
  ▪ Read books about your field
  ▪ Listen to podcasts on relevant topics
CORE MANAGER RESPONSIBILITIES
Setting the Tone

- Promote a team culture where everyone feels valued
- Lead by example and model expectations
- Understand the roles of each team member
- Maintain good working relationships with your team
- Practice gratitude and understanding
- Remind team members of their valuable roles
- Provide the strategic vision of the organization, how their area and role connects to that vision
Core Manager Responsibilities

- Keep communication lines open
- Be clear and concise
- Practice consistency on how you delegate work and monitor expectations
- Be open to answering questions
- Review their job description with them and share your expectations such as what “good” work looks like in their role
- Set realistic expectations, achievable goals and include some stretch goals as appropriate
- Provide on-going feedback on individual performance and goals
- Ensure projects are completed and deadlines are met
- Find out what is working and not working
- Track staff progress through routine check-in meetings
- Learn from staff any potential obstacles that may be barriers
- Sharpen your ability to have difficult conversations when necessary
Team Development and Resource Stewardship

• Developing Your Team
  • One-on-one meetings
  • On-the-job learning and training
  • Learning and training as a team
  • Formal learning and training through internal and external program offerings

• Organization
  • Maximizing existing resources
  • Responsible, judicious and ethical use of resources
Be Available to Your Team

- Shows that you care about how they are doing.
- If your staff know that you will always be there when needed, this can increase their trust.
- Avoid giving the impression you are too busy to talk with them about an issue.
- And if you are too busy at that moment, schedule time for a 1:1 meeting.
One-on-One Meeting Tips

• Schedule one-on-one meetings with your direct reports
• Decide on a cadence – weekly or bi-weekly
• Use a set of check-in questions designed to prompt conversation and updates
• Send a summary email if action items were agreed upon
• Document the meetings and what was discussed
Tips for One-on-One (Check-in) Meetings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Dos</th>
<th>Don’ts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• Begin each meeting by sharing a win (creates positive energy)</td>
<td>• Cancel without rescheduling</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Notify in advance if you plan to touch on professional/career development</td>
<td>• Be consistent (it’s wise to have an agenda, but you should also be flexible)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Be curious (listen to concerns and provide suggestions)</td>
<td>• Forget to say “thank you” (it’s important to show your colleague that you value them)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Mix up the format—f2f or Zoom</td>
<td>• Forget to check in on how they are doing—keep the door open to any concerns they might impact work/life balance</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Possible questions to ask in One on One meetings

- How are things going?
- What have you been working on?
- Please update me on Project xyz.
- Are you on track to meet the deadline?
- What if any barriers exist that I can help with?
- What questions do you have?
- What challenges do you have?
- How can I provide support?
Things to Remember

✔ Set clear boundaries with your team

✔ You have to make tough decisions – it is part of your job

✔ Practice time management

✔ Be poised, stay calm under pressure and lead by example

✔ Stay positive – do the best you can and foster a positive, problem-solving mindset on behalf of your team

✔ Be consistent

✔ Seek out your resources – your leader and your HR Business Partner

Joe, one of your roles is to greet people as they enter our department and assist them with their questions.

I’ve noticed that you have taken 10 minutes or more to acknowledge people when they come in, you appear impatient, and your tone has not been welcoming.

This is impeding our ability to work collaboratively with other departments and is impacting our customer experience and satisfaction.

I need you to acknowledge people as soon as they walk in, and then help them as quickly as you are able to with a friendly and helpful tone. Let’s reevaluate in 2 weeks.

Tips for Addressing Performance Concerns

✔ Be timely

✔ Be clear on what exactly the performance concerns are

✔ Memorialize the concerns and expectations to the employee

✔ Follow up with the employee and hold them/you accountable

✔ Consult with your HRBP or VP for guidance, support or advice
What is good documentation?

- Be timely, clear, concise and factual
- Just Do it
- Send meeting summaries after 1:1 and team meetings to ensure everyone is on the same page.
- For performance: It is important to document throughout the year to ensure proper feedback and expectations and will help with memory recall
GOAL SETTING
Goal Setting Is

- Purposeful and focused approach
- Steps toward planning for the future
- Plays a fundamental role
- Target at which we aim our “arrow”
- Paves the way for success
- Leads to improved performance
- Powerful motivator
- Methodologies vary, choose the one that works best

“Our goals can only be reached through a vehicle of a plan, in which we must fervently believe, and upon which we must vigorously act. There is no other route to success.”

Pablo Picasso

SMART Goal Methodology

- Specific: Achievement in your area of focus
- Meaningful: Importance of goal
- Action Oriented: Steps taken to achieve it
- Realistic: How you can achieve it?
- Timely: When you want you achieve this goal
OGTM= Objectives, Goals, Tactics and Metrics

1. Objectives
   Set an objective.

2. Goals
   Streamline the objective into a tangible target.

3. Tactics
   Outline a small step that enables you to reach your goal.

4. Metrics
   How will you measure – data to tell a story about the extent to which the objective was achieved.
Goal Setting Method
OKRs = Objectives and Key Results

Step 1:
Targeted Objective

Step 2:
Key Results
3-5 Measurable key results for each objective. Key results are typically quantitative benchmarks.

Step 3:
Initiatives
Develop specific initiatives designed to reach key results.

What to Consider When Choosing a Goal Setting Method

The Five Principles of Successful Goal Setting

1. COMMITMENT
   Attachment to goal

2. CLARITY
   Specificity of goal

3. CHALLENGE
   Degree of goal’s difficulty

4. COMPLEXITY
   Degree of goal’s demands

5. FEEDBACK
   Presence of progress reporting

Managing the Emotional Impact

- Allow individuals to share their emotions
- Acknowledge their feelings
- Display patience and understanding
- Diffuse anger by remaining calm and staying with facts
- Crying and/or silence can be a typical response
- With prolonged crying/silence ask if they would like a few minutes in private
- Inform them of available resources
- If necessary, reconvene conversation at a later date
