

IGS Major Curriculum Effective for students who entered Brandeis prior to Fall 2022	IGS Major Curriculum Effective for students who enter Brandeis Fall 2022 and later
One Gateway Course	One Gateway Course
IGS 10a Introduction to International and Global Studies	IGS 10a Introduction to International and Global Studies
Three Core Courses	Three Core Courses
1) ANTH 1a Introduction to the Comparative Study of Human Societies 2) ECON 28b The Global Economy or IGS 8a Economic Principles and Globalization 3) POL 15a Introduction to International Relations	1) ANTH 1a Introduction to the Comparative Study of Human Societies 2) ECON 28b The Global Economy or IGS 8a Economic Principles and Globalization 3) POL 15a Introduction to International Relations
Electives: Two courses from each of the three distributional categories:	Electives: Six additional courses, all chosen from one of the following areas of focus:
Media, Culture, and the Arts Governance, Conflict, and Responsibility Economy, Health, and Environment	Global Health and Development International Order Law, Justice, and Human Rights
Global Issues	Global Issues
At least two of the six elective courses need to deal specifically with global issues.	Not required in this new curriculum.
Auxiliary language	Auxiliary language
Completion of a fourth-semester course in a modern foreign language.	Completion of a fourth-semester course in a modern foreign language.
International experience	International experience
Normally, students satisfy this requirement with a semester-long study abroad program (during the academic year) approved by Brandeis' Study Abroad Office.	Normally, students satisfy this requirement with a semester-long study abroad program (during the academic year) approved by Brandeis' Study Abroad Office