Dear [redacted]

B6

I thought you should be happy that something is happening to the Bethel children finally. But it looks like you are not satisfied with what we do.

I'm trying my best getting things done and we are on that mode. What you failed to understand is that we have to find guardians, extended family members

And proving that they are actually family members. You need to keep in mind all the Bethel kids didn't come from one family neither from one village.

I have talked to you several times; explained what we are going through and how and also mentioned to you if you are too anxious to opt to another referral.

I do not know what else I should be doing.

Remember we didn't refer these children to you; at this point we/I am trying to do what is best for the children and we are doing that.

If it is getting to the point where we are being blamed for it we have the right to drop this case at any time.

Sincerely,

This email was the one I was referring earlier.
