

I-129 Export Control Compliance Certification

The following information will be used to certify whether or not a deemed export license is required from either the U.S. Department of State or Commerce for the beneficiary named below during their period of employment at Brandeis University. The following should be completed and signed by the individual who will be supervising the visa beneficiary or who is otherwise knowledgeable about the beneficiary's intended work.

Visa beneficiary's name:

Visa beneficiary's citizenship(s):

Name of department, institute, or center sponsoring the beneficiary:

Name of the supervising PI:

Will the visa beneficiary be working in the biomedical sciences, computer sciences, space sciences, engineering, or other scientific or technological discipline?

No. Please sign and date this form below and submit via e-mail (pdf) to Scholars@brandeis.edu.

Yes. Please check all the boxes below (if applicable) and sign and date at the bottom

- ☐ The research agreement (e.g., grant or contract) on which the beneficiary will be working does not restrict or prohibit the participation of foreign persons in the project.
- ☐ The research agreement (e.g., grant or contract) on which the beneficiary will be working does not restrict or prohibit the research team's right to publish any of the data or research results.
- ☐ In performing the work under the visa, the beneficiary will not be provided access to:
 - technical information that has been stamped "export controlled"
 - sponsor or third-party proprietary or confidential information, materials, or software; or
 - encryption source code.
- ☐ In performing the work under the visa, the beneficiary will not be provided access to equipment specifically designed or developed for military or space applications.

I am familiar with the job duties and other particulars of employment of the visa beneficiary listed above and hereby affirm that the contents of the foregoing certification are true, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. Box 1 in part 6 of the I-129 form may be checked.

If these questions help you identify sensitive information or technology to which the beneficiary/employee may have access, Brandeis University may need to give further consideration to deemed export compliance for the case. Please consult the Office of Research Administration to discuss your situation and possible deemed export compliance issues.
