The Donor has primary responsibility for identifying to Brandeis legally restricted and/or potentially sensitive records and for proposing reasonable restriction periods for these materials. Brandeis Library may also implement restrictions in accordance with departmental policies and practices.

If there are any restrictions, the Donor should list them below:

Please initial next to one of the options below for each statement (1-4).

- 1. Any items determined to have no permanent or historical value, to be duplicative, or to be outside of the collecting scope of Brandeis Library during the initial survey, processing, or future reappraisal of the collection should be:
 - Discarded.
 - Returned to me. Posthumously, the collection may be transferred at Brandeis’s discretion.

- 2. In the event that Brandeis Library may decide that this collection no longer aligns with its collecting goals or mission, this collection should be:
 - Returned to me. Posthumously, the collection may be transferred at Brandeis’s discretion.
 - Transferred at Brandeis Library's discretion.

- 3. Brandeis shall be the sole authorized entity for the ownership, preservation, management, and dissemination of any donated body of electronic records. Passwords, encryption, or any other impediment to access on files should be removed by the Donor before transfer. If the Donor neglects to do so, Brandeis is authorized to use any technical tools at its disposal to gain access to electronic records.
 - I have read, understood, and agree to these terms.
 - I wish to be consulted regarding hidden or deleted files found on digital media.

- 4. Brandeis may publicly associate the Donor’s name with the associated donated Materials.
 - I have read, understood, and agree to these terms.
 - I do not wish my name to be associated with this donation publicly.

Title to the Materials shall pass to Brandeis University upon their delivery. The Donor represents that there are no claims, judgments, liens, or other encumbrances of any kind whatsoever against the Materials, any portion of the Materials, or the title to the Materials. The Materials shall be preserved, disseminated, and made available, including reproduction and display in electronic form, or by any other means, subject to standard archival practices and as permitted by applicable law. Materials covered by this instrument shall be subject to subpoena or other lawful process. Should the Donor give Brandeis University additional Materials, all of the foregoing provisions of this agreement shall be applicable to such additional Materials.

I hereby unconditionally and irrevocably release, discharge, and indemnify Brandeis from and against any and all claims and causes of action of any nature whatsoever, arising from the receipt, use, disclosure, storage, or deaccessioning of the above-described materials.
