NOTES ABOUT FALL 2023 ITAL COURSES
- All classes will be in-person.
- If you would like to enroll in an Italian language course, you always have the option of emailing the Director of the French and Italian Language Programs, Professor Harder (harder@brandeis.edu), who will be happy to help you enroll.
- More details below and at: www.brandeis.edu/romance-studies/courses

If you have never taken Italian before:
- Go ahead and enroll in ITAL 10 via WorkDay.

If you have taken 1+ years of Italian:
- Email Professor Harder (harder@brandeis.edu) to receive a placement test. Once you have your score, you should submit a Prerequisite Override Request Form in WorkDay, and then you can enroll directly into the course in which you have placed.
- During the first week of classes, your instructor will evaluate your level again and may ask you to change levels if you have been incorrectly placed.
- There are no restrictions for students to enroll through Workday, aside from filling out the Prerequisite Override Request Form. Faculty in Italian Studies want to make sure that interested students encounter no barriers to enroll in their courses.

If you have an AP score or other official test score: We will use your official score to place you in our classes.
- If you received a 5 in AP in Italian, go ahead and enroll in level 30.
- 4 in AP, enroll in 105 (you may also contact the UAH to see if you are eligible for an upper-level class).
- 3 in AP, enroll in 106 (you may contact the UAH to see if you are eligible for an upper-level class).

IMPORTANT: You will need to submit a Prerequisite Override Request Form in WorkDay in order to enroll directly into the course. Please contact Professor Harder (harder@brandeis.edu) if you have any questions.

ITAL 10A Beginning Italian
(1) M,W,Th 12:20–1:10; F 12:45–1:35 PM, Monteleone
(2) M,W,Th 1:20–2:10 PM; T 12:45–1:35 PM, Servino
Prerequisite: For students with little or no knowledge of Italian language. Permission required (please see instructions above). Are you interested in experiencing a taste of Italy right here on campus? If reading an Italian menu with the right accent, understanding Bocelli and Botticelli, speaking the language, and learning about love and passion beyond the stereotypes are not enough to get you involved, we will find many more ways to make your Italian experience worthwhile. Just as in Italy, if you have no specific reasons to study Italian, we will make one up just for you!

ITAL 106A Storia e storie d'Italia: Advanced Italian through Narrative, Film, and Other Media
(1) M,W,Th 12:20–2:10; T 12:45–1:35 PM, Monteleone
Prerequisite: ITAL 30a, ITAL 105a, or the equivalent. Permission required (please see instructions to left). Is Italian synonymous with pizza and the Mafia? Of course not! Students in this course advance their study in Italian language and culture by improving their ability to recount events, give descriptions, and make comparisons—both orally and in writing. Working with newspaper articles, short stories, and films, students gain an understanding of what growing up in Italy is all about! Students learn how the closeness of family and friends is the basis of Italian culture and how Italians are able to live in a modern Italy despite their old soul that comes from ancient values and colorful imagery of its people.
ITAL 110A Introduction to Italian Literature: Love, Intrigues and Politics from Dante to Goldoni
(1) T,Th 3:55–5:15 PM, Servino
Prerequisite: ITAL 105a, 106a, or permission of the instructor.
Why Study Dante (and much more!)? Just for the Hell of it! Surveys the masterpieces of Italian literature from Dante’s journey to Goldoni’s stage. Come explore intrigues of love and politics in Italian culture and literature, through dynamic analysis and discussions of primary texts. Conducted in Italian.
