UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARDS
Up to $2000 for projects in Jewish Studies

PROPOSALS SHOULD INCLUDE
- Title and objectives of the project and an explanation of how this research constitutes a culmination of the applicant's undergraduate learning
- Description of research plans, including data to be used, methodology, and description of sources.
- Breakdown of specific expenditures to be covered by the grant
- Letter of recommendation from a faculty advisor
- Names of other Brandeis grants for which the applicant has applied
- Curriculum Vitae

SELECTION CRITERIA
- Originality and creativity of the project
- Appropriateness of primary-source collections and institutions in which the applicant proposes to conduct research
- Strong academic record

DEADLINE: OCTOBER 3, 2019
Awards will be announced by October 15, 2019

SUBMIT PROPOSALS TO:
The Tauber Institute for the Study of European Jewry
Lown 306, MS 075

THE TAUBER INSTITUTE is pleased to announce our pilot program of grants for senior thesis research in any academic discipline related to Jewish Studies.* Individual grants of up to $2000 will be awarded to cover travel expenses (such as visits to archives), purchase of materials (such as microfilm), and costs of data collection and processing.

Brandeis University rising seniors are encouraged to apply for funds in support of a senior thesis project. The project should span the candidate's entire senior academic year in 2019-2020. The next round of applications will be accepted in the spring of 2020 for projects in the 2020-2021 academic year.

*for grants in Israel Studies, please contact the Schusterman Center for Israel Studies, Brandeis University